

Peck Peck Chicken

Paper-thin and lightly batter coated for that perfect crisp. We don't serve the heavy breaded chicken of yesterday. Our chicken is fried twice in trans-fat free. Vegetable oil and is given the same amount of attention every time.

Our Rice

Brown rice is healthy, and so is black jasmine rice Even more beneficial than a spoonful so It was also rice meant for emperors. That's why we mix the two, for someone as special as you!

Chicken Croquettes

Minced chicken, smashed potatoes, bell peppers and cabbage in a panko blanket.

What could be any better on a day like today?
If you're looking for a snack or compliment to that health salad, chicken out these bites.
